About CLA
We exist to simplify copyright for content users and copyright owners

We help our customers to legally access, copy and share published content while making sure copyright owners are paid royalties for the use of their work.

Our rights, licences and innovative digital services make it easy for customers to use and manage copyright content from books, journals, magazines and online publications, including websites.

By doing so we simplify access to the work of 95,000 authors, 25,000 visual artists and 3,500 publishers and play an important part in supporting the creative industries.

“...we simplify access to the work of 95,000 authors, 25,000 visual artists and 3,500 publishers…”

Serving content users
We offer a growing range of services to content users in the academic, professional and public sectors.

• Our blanket licences allow customers to copy and share extracts such as book chapters, journal articles and press cuttings without having to seek permission from copyright owners each time
• Our online Check Permissions tool enables customers to see if the title they want to copy is covered by their licence and depending on their sector, they can purchase additional permissions or order copies of copyright fee-paid documents
• Our digital tools and workflow solutions support the management and delivery of content to end users

Paying copyright owners
We are non profit-making so our revenue is paid out as royalties to copyright owners. We work with our customers to gather information about what is copied so we can pay the authors, visual artists and publishers whose work is used.

Royalty payments provide copyright owners with an income that helps them to continue to produce the quality content that customers want.

When you want a simple solution to copyright and content just ask.

About the CLA Business Licence

The CLA Business Licence permits UK employees to make Paper or Digital Copies of content, subject to certain terms and conditions, from most books, magazines, journals and periodicals as well as from a wide range of digital publications. Copies may be made from publications including those to which you subscribe and from articles or press cuttings provided by licensed external suppliers where a copyright fee has been paid (e.g. from a PR or press cuttings agency or the British Library).

Licence coverage

- Photocopying
- Scanning
- Copying of digital content, e.g. e-books, PDF files from electronic subscriptions, online journal articles and certain website material

Who can make and receive copies?

Any UK employee in your organisation, including individual consultants or agency workers, can make and receive copies. Any overseas employee in your organisation can receive digital copies (intranet and email) for viewing only (unless your company holds a CLA Multinational Licence).

What can I use copies for?

- To share with colleagues at meetings or briefings
- To share media coverage within your organisation
- For market intelligence
- For Health & Safety or Environmental Awareness
- For research and development
- For internal training
- For UK regulatory and patent submissions
- To post articles from selected publications on your company website

How much can be copied?

On each occasion you may copy a single chapter of a book, a single article from a periodical, or up to 5% of a publication, whichever is the greater. For digital publications such as websites that are not conventionally structured, you should ensure that copying is limited to small extracts that are equivalent to these limits.

Excluded works

There are some individual titles, authors and categories of publications that are excluded from the Licence and you will need to contact the copyright owner directly for permission to copy these. To check if a work is excluded you can use our Check Permissions search tool at cla.co.uk

Digital publications

Copying of electronic publications is restricted to publications published by Participating Digital Material Publishers. For full details please visit cla.co.uk

International publications

We have agreements with similar agencies in most major overseas territories enabling International publications and content to be copied under our licence. For full details of these overseas agencies and the countries that are covered please visit cla.co.uk

Check Permissions

The easiest way to check what can be copied is to use our Check Permissions search tool.
Rate Card
for the Business Licence

Rates effective March 2020

Business Licence fees are charged according to the number of employees and your business SIC code. To find the applicable rate, follow 3 easy steps, then work out what you will pay with a simple calculation.

Step 1 – Check your employee numbers

Rates for Small Businesses with 1-50 employees
Businesses employing up to 50 employees are subject to CLA’s small business fees, based on the total employees of the business.

The annual fee for businesses with 1-10 total employees is £142 + VAT
The annual fee for businesses with 11-50 total employees is £485 + VAT

Rates for Businesses with 51+ employees
Businesses employing 51+ employees are charged per professional employee according to the SIC codes of the main business activity, subject to a minimum annual charge of £485 + VAT.

If your business has 51+ professional employees, please follow Step 2 and Step 3.

Step 2 – Find your SIC Code

A Standard Industrial Classification code, (SIC code) describes the main business activity of a company and these are published on the website of Companies House.

Step 3 – Look up your rate

If you have 51+ employees and know your SIC code, please use the rate table below to identify your annual fee per professional employee:

4.1 With the exception of any part of Website Material that is ‘free to view’ the Licensee must own, or have subscribed to, an original, or a copy on which it has paid a copyright fee (which shall include material supplied in either hardcopy or electronic form by a supplier licensed by CLA to provide such a service such as, but without limitation, document delivery and press cuttings suppliers), of any Licensed Material it copies, scans or uses under the terms of the Licence.

4.2.1 in the case of a periodical publication, one whole article; or

4.2.2 in the case of a published report of judicial proceedings, the entire report of a single case; or 4.2.3 in the case of a book, one chapter.

For Digital Material that is not made available or otherwise structured as a conventional book, journal, magazine or other periodical or where the Digital Material is not divided into distinct sections identifiable as the equivalent of a book chapter or of an article in a journal, magazine or other periodical, the Licensee shall ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that copying is limited to small extracts that are equivalent to the limits set out above, at all times bearing in mind in particular the requirement contained in clause 4.5 that no copying shall substitute for the purchase of original Licensed Material.

4.3 Licensed Copies of the same Licensed Material made for a single occasion or purpose shall be treated as one copy and clause 4.2 interpreted accordingly.

4.4 Licensed Copies may not be sold or otherwise disposed of (whether or not for valuable consideration) nor rented nor loaned to any third party or used for any external marketing or promotional purposes or exploited for purposes other than for the Licensee's internal information purposes.
5. Further conditions applying to the creation and use of digital copies

Electronic notation superimposed on, or electronic marking-up of, a Digital Copy which clearly distinguishes such notation or marking-up from the original text (such as by the use of different colours) shall not be a breach of this condition.

5.2 Except as may be permitted by clauses 4.7, 5.1 and 9, no digital manipulation, morphing, colour or shade adjustment or any other form of manipulation, may be made of Digital Copies or Digital Material under the Licence.

5.4 Except as permitted by the Licence, no other copying, summarising, dissemination, publication, communication or making available to the public, repackaging or distribution, in any form, of Digital Copies, in whole or in part, is permitted.

5.5 Where any work appearing within Digital Material or Material Licensed for Scanning incorporates, or has adjacent to it, the identity of the author or creator of the artistic and/or literary work, the Licensee shall ensure that every Digital Copy of that work shall include the identity of such author or creator. In cases where the Digital Material or Material Licensed for Scanning, does not incorporate, or have adjacent to it, the identity of the author or creator of the artistic or literary work, the Licensee shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that every Digital Copy of that work shall include the identity of such author or creator.

5.6 The Licensee may subcontract to third parties the making and the making available of Licensed Copies, provided that:

5.6.1 the Licensee takes all reasonable steps to ensure that any such third party operates appropriate management and security procedures so as to ensure compliance with the terms of the Licence;

5.6.2 a record is kept of all such subcontracts and that such record is provided on request to CLA;

5.6.3 the Licensee shall be fully responsible for any acts or omissions of its subcontractors with respect to Licensed Material made available to such subcontractors to the extent that such acts or omissions would breach the Licence if they were acts or omissions of the Licensee; and

5.6.4 the use of a sub-contractor located outside of the United Kingdom shall be deemed not to be a breach of clause 2.

5.7 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Licence shall operate to limit any rights which the Licensee may have in relation to the use of material supplied to the Licensee in electronic form under the terms and conditions of that supply. This Agreement is without prejudice to any acts which the Licensee is permitted to carry out by the terms of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (as the same may be subsequently re-enacted or amended) it being recognised that such permitted acts must be construed in accordance with the principles set out in Article 9(2) of the Berne Convention, as already reflected in the legislation applicable in the UK.

6. Further conditions applying to the use of CCC electronic-rights works

6.1 Notwithstanding clause 2.1.2, the Licensee may only scan, or permit the scanning of, hard copies of a CCC Electronic-Rights Work under the Licence where the same is not reasonably available in digital form for the Licensee to purchase whether by subscription or otherwise.

6.2 The use of CCC Electronic-Rights Works is subject to such special limitations or other terms (if any) as are applicable to any individual work as identified on CLA's website.

7. Storage and deletion of digital copies

7.1 The Licensee may store Digital Copies on the Secure Network; such stored Digital Copies may be indexed and searchable but may not be stored on a server, or systematically indexed, with the intention of creating an electronic library or similar corporate information resource.

7.2 On termination of this Licence the Licensee shall:

7.2.1 i) immediately cease to make available any Digital Copies on the Licensee Website; and ii) permanently delete, as soon as practicable, from the hard drives of all its central and local servers and those of any third party subcontractor any and all Digital Copies which may be stored there (save for those Digital Copies the retention of which is required by law), but;
7.2.2 shall be entitled, except where such termination is by CLA for cause, to retain Digital Copies stored pursuant to clause 7.1 for record purposes and shall be entitled to access such Digital Copies only to prove that such Digital Copies were a necessary part of the product or project for which they were originally identified as being stored.

The Licensee shall not otherwise be entitled to access or use such Digital Copies under the Licence except where necessary for technical backup purposes or where required by law.

7.3 The Licensee shall immediately: i) cease to make available any Digital Copies on the Licensee Website; and ii) permanently delete, as soon as practicable, from the hard drives of all its central and local servers and those of any third party subcontractor any and all Digital Copies which may be stored there upon notice from CLA that the copyright holder believes that the Licensed Material contained in the Digital Copies infringes copyright or is or may be defamatory, obscene or otherwise unlawful or, in the case of i) above, the relevant Rightsholder or publisher issues a legal retraction notice or notice of correction or if CLA considers the Licensee Website is, or has become, a Restricted Website.

7.4 If so requested in writing by CLA, the Licensee shall certify that it has ceased to make available and deleted Digital Copies in compliance with this clause 7. The provisions of this clause 7 are without prejudice to, and are subject to the provisions of, clause 4.5.

9. Print disabled persons
9.1 The provisions of this clause shall only apply where an Authorised Person is a Print Disabled Person in accordance with clause 9.3.
9.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 4.2 the Licensee, and as appropriate Authorised Persons, may make and supply a copy of part or the whole of any work within Licensed Material in an alternative manner or form that gives a Print Disabled Person access to the work including allowing for the Print Disabled Person to have access as feasibly and comfortably as a person without a visual impairment or any of the disabilities referred to in clause 9.3 (an “Accessible Format Copy”); but must respect the integrity of the work and not include any changes to the work which are not necessary in order to make an Accessible Format Copy for the exclusive use of the Print Disabled Person for whom it is intended on, and subject to, the following conditions:

9.2.1 the Licensee must have lawful access to an original copy of any work from which it makes an Accessible Format Copy;
9.2.2 each Accessible Format Copy that exceeds the limits set out in clause 4.2 shall contain:
   i) a statement that it is a copy of the original work made under a CLA Licence for the personal use of a Print Disabled Person and that it may not be further copied (including any electronic copying or transmission) or dealt with without permission or save as may be permitted by law; and
   ii) the title, as well as the name of the author and publisher, of the original work and the published edition from which it is copied.

9.3.1 is blind;
9.3.2 has a visual impairment which cannot be improved so as to give that person visual function substantially equivalent to that of a person who has no such impairment;
9.3.3 has a perceptual or reading disability, including dyslexia, and is, as a result, unable to read printed works to substantially the same degree as a person without an impairment or disability;

9.3.5 would otherwise be regarded as having a disability in accordance with s.6 of the Equality Act 2010.

9.4 This clause is without prejudice to and does not purport to prevent or restrict the doing of any act which by virtue of and in accordance with the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 would not infringe copyright.

10. Indemnity
10.1 In this clause ‘Qualifying Claim’ shall mean any complaint made in writing that the Licensee acting in pursuance of the Licence has infringed copyright and/or database right in Licensed Material or in the typographical arrangement of the published edition in which Licensed Material is contained.
10.2 In the case of any Qualifying Claim, CLA shall indemnify the Licensee in respect of all reasonable legal costs, expenses and damages awarded against or incurred by the Licensee including any ex gratia payments made with the prior written consent of CLA, provided that the Licensee has complied with the terms of this Licence and has given CLA notice of any Qualifying Claim within 10 working days or, in the case of a Claim Form, within 5 working days of the same having been received by the Licensee.

10.3 The indemnity conferred by this clause shall not apply:

10.3.1 if the Licensee is in material breach of any term of the Licence; or 10.3.2 during any period, or in respect of matters arising during such period, while the Licence is in suspense pursuant to clause 11.

10.4 CLA shall take over responsibility for any negotiations for the settlement of any Qualifying Claim and if such Qualifying Claim cannot be resolved by negotiation CLA shall assume full responsibility for the conduct of the defence of such Qualifying Claim. The Licensee shall co-operate with CLA in this respect where reasonably requested by CLA to do so.

10.5 The Licensee shall ensure that no admission or offer of payment or indemnity shall be made or given by or on its behalf or on behalf of CLA without CLA’s written consent and shall ensure that all correspondence received in connection with a Qualifying Claim is promptly passed to CLA.

10.6 The Licensee shall indemnify CLA in respect of all reasonable expenses, damages and legal costs awarded against or incurred by CLA in respect of any claim arising out of the Licensee’s breach of any term of the Licence.

11. Termination and breach

11.1 Either party may terminate the Licence upon giving to the other at least 30 days written notice to expire on the first or any subsequent anniversary of the Commencement Date.

11.2 If the Licensee commits any material breach of any of the provisions of the Licence and remains in breach 14 days after receiving notice to remedy such breach (where the breach is remediable) then CLA, without prejudice to any of its other rights, may by notice either terminate the Licence or suspend the Licence until CLA shall be satisfied such breaches will not recur.

11.3 Either party may terminate the Licence by notice in writing to the other if and when a supervisor, administrator, receiver, administrative receiver or other encumbrancer takes possession of, or is appointed over, the whole or any substantial part of the other party’s assets or if and when the other party enters into any arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors (including any voluntary arrangement under the Insolvency Act 1986) or if and when a petition is presented for the purpose of the making of an administration order or the winding up of the other party which is not discharged within 7 days of the presentation of such a petition or if the other party is placed into liquidation or administration or if the other party is dissolved or if a resolution is passed (other than a voluntary liquidation for the purpose of reconstruction in which all creditors’ claims will be discharged in full) or if a bankruptcy petition is presented against the other party which is not discharged within 7 days of its presentation.

12. Data collection

12.1 CLA may, no more than once in each year, require the Licensee to participate in a data collection exercise to identify the type of photocopying and scanning of Licensed Material and the use or re-use of Digital Material under the Licence which will assist CLA in distributing the Fee to authors, artists and publishers.

12.2 The data collection exercise may, without limitation, take the form of a survey or record keeping or online reporting exercise, or any combination of these, including the recording of the creation of Digital Copies, in accordance with any guidelines on data collection on CLA’s website.

12.3 If selected, the Licensee shall co-operate with CLA in conducting the data collection exercise and undertakes to ensure that its employees comply with its obligations under this clause.

12.4 CLA undertakes not to disclose any information obtained as a result of any data collection exercise except:

12.4.1 as required by a court or other authority of competent jurisdiction; or 12.4.2 in aggregated form from which the identity of the Licensee cannot be identified.

In the case of there being no valid electronic contact, notices shall be sent by first class post, in the case of the Licensee to the address shown on the Certificate, and shall be deemed to have been served on the second working day (which shall exclude weekends and English public holidays) following the date of posting. The Licence may only be varied if such variation is acknowledged in writing on behalf of a duly authorised officer both of CLA and of the Licensee.

13.2 The Licence is personal to the Licensee and may not be assigned or otherwise disposed of in whole or in part.

13.3 The Licence shall be governed by English law and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts as regards any claim or matter arising in relation to the Licence.

13.4 The parties do not intend that any term of the Licence shall be enforceable solely by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any person who is not a party to the Licence.
