Photocopying, Scanning and Digital Re-use under the CLA Education Licence

This establishment holds a licence with The Copyright Licensing Agency Ltd (CLA) that, subject to terms and conditions, permits the copying and re-use of extracts of text and still images.

What does the Licence cover?

- The Licence covers most printed books, journals and magazines published in the UK, plus many published overseas and many digital publications.

Coverage

- Some titles are not covered by the Education Licence.

You can check whether a particular title is covered by using our Check Permissions online search tool.

How much can be copied?

Up to the following may be copied under the Licence:

- One whole chapter from a book
- One whole article from a magazine or journal issue
- One short story, poem or play (not exceeding 10 pages in length) from an anthology
- One whole paper from a set of conference proceedings
- One whole report of a single case from a volume of judicial proceedings or 5% of any of the above, whichever is the greater

Where a digital publication is not organised in a similar way to conventional printed items, you are advised to exercise your best judgement to copy reasonable extracts.

Who can make copies?

- Photocopies may be made by any member of staff of this establishment, and any students under the direction of such staff
- Digital Copies (whether made by scanning from print or copying from digital publications) may be made by staff of this establishment who have authorised access to the establishment's Secure Network, and students under the direction of such staff; such students must also have authorised access to the Secure Network.

Copies may be distributed to registered students and members of staff.
