- 4.3 Licensed Copies of the same Licensed Material made for a single occasion or purpose shall be treated as one copy and Clause 4.2 interpreted accordingly.
- 4.4 Licensed Copies may not be sold or otherwise disposed of (whether or not for valuable consideration) nor rented nor loaned to any third party or used for any external marketing or promotional purposes or exploited for purposes other than for the Licensee's internal information purposes.

Electronic notation superimposed on, or electronic marking-up of, a Digital Copy which clearly distinguishes such notation or marking-up from the original text (such as by the use of different colours) shall not be a breach of this condition.

In cases where the Digital Material or Material Licensed for Scanning, does not incorporate, or have adjacent to it, the identity of the author or creator of the artistic or literary work, the Licensee shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that every Digital Copy of that work shall include the identity of such author or creator.
- 5.6 The Licensee may subcontract to third parties the making of Licensed Copies, provided that:

 - 5.6.3 as far as reasonably practicable, the Licensee shall be responsible for any acts or omissions of its subcontractors with respect to Licensed Material made available to such subcontractors to the extent that such acts or omissions would breach the Licence if they were acts or omissions of the Licensee; and
 - 5.6.4 the use of a sub-contractor located outside the United Kingdom shall be deemed not to be a breach of clause 2.
- 5.7 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Licence shall operate to limit any rights which the Licensee may have in relation to the use of material supplied to the Licensee in electronic form under the terms and conditions of that supply. This Agreement is without prejudice to any acts which the Licensee is permitted to carry out by the terms of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (as the same may be subsequently re-enacted or amended) it being recognised that such permitted acts must be construed in accordance with the principles set out in Article 9(2) of the Berne Convention, as already reflected in the legislation applicable in the UK.

- 7.3 On termination of this Agreement the Licensee shall:

- 7.3.1 permanently delete, as soon as reasonably practicable, from the hard drives of all its central and local servers any and all Digital Copies which may be stored there (save for those Digital Copies the retention of which is required by law), but;
- 7.3.2 be entitled, except where such termination is by CLA for cause, to retain Digital Copies stored pursuant to clause 7.1 for record purposes and shall be entitled to access such Digital Copies only to prove that such Digital Copies were a necessary part of the product or project for which they were originally identified as being stored. The Licensee shall not otherwise be entitled to access or use such Digital Copies under the Licence except where necessary for technical backup purposes or where required by law. If so requested in writing by CLA, the Licensee shall certify that it has deleted Digital Copies in compliance with this clause.
- 7.4 The Licensee shall as soon as reasonably practicable permanently delete from the hard drives of all its central and local servers and those of any subcontractor any and all Digital Copies which may be stored there upon notice from CLA that the copyright holder believes that the Licensed Material contained in the Digital Copies infringes copyright or is or may be defamatory, obscene or otherwise unlawful save where retention is required by law.

- 8.1.1 notify Authorised Persons of, and shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure their compliance with, the provisions of the Licence; and

- 9.1 The provisions of this clause shall only apply where an Authorised Person is a Print Disabled Person in accordance with clause 9.3.
- 9.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 4.2 the Licensee, and as appropriate Authorised Persons, may make and supply a copy of part or the whole of any work within Licensed Material in an alternative manner or form that gives a Print Disabled Person access to the work including allowing for the Print Disabled Person to have access as feasibly and comfortably as a person without a visual impairment or any of the disabilities referred to in clause 9.3 (an "Accessible Format Copy") but must respect the integrity of the work and not include any changes to the work which are not necessary in order to make an Accessible Format Copy for the exclusive use of the Print Disabled Person for whom it is intended on, and subject to, the following conditions:
